

Share your quality and safety improvement initiative at the 2023 Quality Summits

In-person, Zone Quality Summits are back and better than ever!

We want to highlight the incredible people, inspiring stories and projects showing collaboration, innovation, quality improvement and safety at the Quality Summits.

It's easy to present your initiative orally or by poster presentation.

Want to attend and hear about your colleagues amazing work but do not have an initiative/project to present? We want to see you there.

To submit your initiative or attend the Quality Summit, visit our Quality Summit site or scan the QR code below.
